

LIEUTENANT GENERAL SURENDRA KULKARNI (RETD), DIRECTOR, MAYO COLLEGE AJMER

Lt Gen Surendra Kulkarni has served in the Indian Army for about four decades. He was commissioned into the Armoured Corps in 1975. In recognition of his special contribution, he has been awarded the highest peacetime distinguished service award in the Armed Forces, the ParamVishishtSeva Medal by the President of India.

Parallel to his Army career, he has pursued his academic interests. He is an economics graduate from Fergusson College, Pune. He was a post graduate UGC Merit scholar before he joined the Army. He has four Masters Degrees including an M Phil degree.

He is an alumnus of Mayo College, Ajmer. He has been the Director since January 2015. He is currently the Regional Trustee of the South Asia and Gulf Region of the Round Square organization.